Thank you Garrett, unfortunately I won't be able to attend because our agency is having a swearing in ceremony for our newly graduated officers.

Hi Chief Williams,

I hope you can join us in Atlanta, Flock Safety's headquarters, from December 9th to the 10th. An exclusive group of law enforcement agencies will meet with Flock Safety, the executive leadership team, and our top solutions experts.

We've curated this event for valued partners like you, offering behind-the-scenes access to our US-made hardware and discussions with our product team to see what's on the roadmap for the future. During this event, you'll have the chance to:

- Engage in a roundtable discussion with our leadership team.
- Visit a local Real-Time Policing setup from one of our Metro Atlanta customers.

We look forward to hosting you next month if you can make it. Due to the intimate nature of the event, we have limited spots available. If you can join us, reply, and we will connect you with our team to schedule the next steps.

Best regards,

Garrett Langley
